

Lesson 352

Mechanics - Punctuation - Commas

Use a comma or commas to set off words or phrases used as nouns of address (nominatives of address).

Examples:

Joe, get over here.

Get over here, Joe.

Young man, get over here.

Instructions: Place commas where they are needed.

1. Did you Susan see him at the meetings?
2. I will call you in the morning Steve.
3. Well Fred it was a pleasure to see you again.
4. Jeanne I don't know what is going on.
5. You should Bill know the answer to that one.