

Lesson 418Mechanics - Punctuation - Hyphens

Use a hyphen in a compound adjective in which the last word is capitalized.

Example:

un-Christian

Instructions: Supply hyphens where they are needed in these sentences.

1. He was accused of unAmerican activities.
2. He would not move to New York City because he was a totally antiNew York fan.
3. Some businesses have an unEuropean attitude.
4. His unIrish sentiments caused many problems for the family.
5. Road rage certainly should be considered unChristian.